Cleveland, Ohio (March 5, 2012) – Festival producer Howard Alan Events and Legacy Village are bringing back its annual signature summer juried art festival June 2 - 3, 2012. Admission is free and open to the public.

“Our jury process is very selective, this is how we ensure a diverse and eclectic mix of styles and media that appeal to a broad variety of art enthusiasts and collectors,” says festival promoter Howard Alan. “There is truly something for everyone.”

Art in the Village began 22 years ago in Beachwood, Ohio hosted by Beachwood Place. The two-day festival moved across the street to Legacy Village ten years ago where it continues to be well received and popular among locals and tourists alike.

About Howard Alan Events, Ltd.:

Howard Alan Events, a Florida-based company, develops and presents art and craft shows throughout the country. For the past 25 years, Howard Alan Events has produced some of the nation’s finest juried art shows, including more than 40 venues each year such as the Downtown Aspen Art Festival (Aspen, CO), Beaver Creek Art Festival (Beaver Creek, CO), Chicago Tribune North Michigan Avenue Art Festival (Chicago, IL), and the Las Olas Art Fairs, (Fort Lauderdale, FL). Several shows are ranked in the top 100 art fairs in the country by Sunshine Artist magazine.
