

For Immediate Release

Contact: Superintendent's Office
Debra Betz, Executive Secretary
O: 216-691-2006
betz@sel.k12.oh.us

SE-L Superintendent Search Community Focus Groups

LYNDHURST, OHIO –The South Euclid-Lyndhurst School District is looking for input on what the community wants in a new Superintendent of Schools. All community members are invited to neighborhood Focus Group meetings, which will provide the opportunity for residents to voice their opinions and tell the district and board what they are looking for in a new Superintendent. The meetings will be held:

- At 6:30 p.m. Jan. 17 at Adrian Elementary School, 1071 Homestead Road, South Euclid
- At 7 p.m. Jan. 18 at Sunview Elementary School, 5520 Meadow Wood Boulevard, Lyndhurst
- At 7 p.m. Jan. 19 at Rowland Elementary School, 4300 Bayard Road, South Euclid

The Focus Group Meetings are open to all community members. Please try to attend the meeting at the location nearest to your home. The meeting will last approximately 1 hour, during which residents will have the opportunity to provide their thoughts and opinions regarding the qualities, experience and characteristics they feel are important in the next Superintendent of the South Euclid-Lyndhurst City Schools.

Meetings will be facilitated by the management team of Finding Leaders. Finding Leaders is an organization whose mission is to help school districts find and support ideal leaders. They are skilled in the identification, development and selection of successful leaders.

About the District

In 2011, Adrian, Rowland and Sunview Elementary Schools were rated “Excellent” by the Ohio Department of Education. The District has more than 4,000 students from South Euclid, Lyndhurst and areas of Richmond Heights and is led by James Costanza. For more information, visit www.sel.k12.oh.us.