Wednesday, June 1st “To Kill the Irishman”

by Rick Porrello

From the Prohibition Era “sugar war,” to “the Irishman,” to Angelo “Big Ange” Lonardo and the fall of the Cleveland mob. It’s the Cleveland Mafia featuring the Danny Greene story – and the metamorphosis of book to film.

Presentation vehicle is a narrated Powerpoint slideshow (approx. 75 slides), then Q&A session. Books available for purchase.

Programs begin approx. 7:45 PM (following our 7:30 meeting) at D’Amico Community Center, 1370 Victory Dr., South Euclid, OH 44121
All are welcome! Refreshments! No charge for attendance!

Field Trip

ICA is the oldest not-for-profit regional art conservation center in the United States. For nearly sixty years, ICA has cleaned, repaired and restored works of art and objects of cultural and personal significance.

Eighty percent of what an archivist needs to know to preserve documents and other items requires little training and scant skill. These are the folks that do the other 20%.

Reservations required! Size is very limited! Contact Bob at Bob@SE-Lhistory.org or 216-970-2333 to make a reservation. Since they can only accommodate a small group please reserve early.

June is membership month. Check our website for our very affordable rates.
