

Free family summer fun returns to Legacy Village

Little Legacy, Kids Village and New Meet the Machines Event Tops Children's Programming

LYNDHURST, Ohio (May 12, 2016) – This summer at Legacy Village, children will be able to get behind the wheel of a firetruck, learn about exotic animals, dance their heart out to live music, win cool prizes and much more. From weekly Little Legacy educational series, to Kids Village and a new Meet the Machines event, Legacy Village's free summer programming for children is sure to be a hit for parents and youngsters alike.

"Families have long been central to the Legacy Village experience," said Legacy Village General Manager Susan Windle. "Our children's programming is designed to combine learning with interactive fun for a summertime Legacy Village experience that both kids and their parents will love."

Little Legacy

June 1st through August 31st 2016

Turn Wednesdays into fun days for little ones at Little Legacy, June 1 through August 31. Little Legacy offers educational, cultural and wellness-based events all summer long, with entertaining programming for children pre-K and younger and their parents. Sessions will be led by barre3, Goldfish Swim School, L.L. Bean, Jungle Terry and more. Held at the Lawn each Wednesday from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., Little Legacy is free and open to the public.

Kids Village

July 10th 2016

Legacy Village will be transformed into Kids Village on Sunday, July 10, from noon until 5 p.m. for an afternoon of kid-friendly activities, entertainment, demonstrations, and more. The 10th annual Kids Village will be presented by UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital and Hawken School.

Activities for the free public event are scheduled to include interactive booths and displays, safety information, live entertainment, demonstrations on the stage, cool prizes, and much more.

Meet the Machines

August 13th 2016

On August 13, Legacy Village will host Meet the Machines, a new event that offers a unique opportunity for youngsters and families to touch and explore construction, emergency, service vehicles and more machines of all makes and sizes. This hands-on experience will feature games, live music, safety information and more! Meet the Machines is a free public event made possible with the support from The City of Lyndhurst.

Legacy Village is Northeastern Ohio's premier lifestyle center located in the Cleveland suburb of Lyndhurst. Legacy Village features more than 55 restaurants and retailers, many of which are unique to the area.
