

South Euclid - Lyndhurst Historical Society

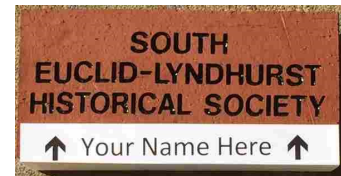

SE-Lhistory.org
2017 Programs

Wednesday, February 1st Feisty, Fearless & Fabulous

Susan Cannavino tells the tales of the private lives of women in (and sometimes out of) the White House. One of the ladies is Victoria Woodhull, the first woman candidate for president—in 1872!

You deserve a brick today!

Please consider getting a signature brick for yourself or your company to be set in the Gatehouse patio of the Telling Mansion. It's the perfect gift for the hard-to-buy-for South Euclid or Lyndhurst friend or relative. The details can be found at our web site: <http://SE-Lhistory.org/brick.pdf>

Wednesday, April 5th Tales From Down Under, And We Ain't Talkin' Australia

Cathie Clager from C & R Productions will present an hour-long program, highlighting over 20 unique people buried in Northeast Ohio Cemeteries.

Time Capsule

This Stainless Steel Time Capsule (24" long x 6" diam.) will be buried October 13 on the Notre Dame College campus grounds for the next fifty years. Suggestions for contents already include: The Book South Euclid; Articles of Incorporation; digital family photos – just one (1) per family, please; essays and messages to the future. Digital submissions and/or any additional suggestions should be e-mailed to us at:

TimeCapsule@SE-Lhistory.org

The South Euclid Centennial Committee

Programs begin approx. 7:45 PM (following our 7:30 meeting) at D'Amico Community Center, 1370 Victory Dr., South Euclid, OH 44121

All are welcome! No charge for attendance!

