REVIVE BOUTIQUE OPENS AT LEGACY VILLAGE Store Showcases Fair Trade Gifts From Around the World

LYNDHURST, Ohio (November 2009) – Revive, an independent boutique offering fair trade products for men, women, children and the home, will celebrate the grand opening of its Legacy Village location on Saturday, November 7.

The store will return to Legacy Village as a permanent tenant following a successful holiday season last year. The store specializes in eco-friendly, handcrafted goods, such as clothing and accessories, shoes, home items, skincare, coffee, tea and chocolate.

Revive owner Lisa Dunn grew the concept out of her desire to promote the best companies and organizations that offer fair trade products. “Revive offers a shopping atmosphere that embraces fun, functionality and ethically made merchandise,” said Dunn. “This is a lifestyle store that offers sustainable products for all aspects of our lives.”

Revive is part of the Fair Trade Federation, which promotes standards for international laborers.

The Legacy Village store is the second Revive location in the Cleveland area. The original store is located on Lee Road in Cleveland Heights.
